

Mark 9:30-37

<sup>30</sup> They left that place and passed through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where they were, <sup>31</sup> because he was teaching his disciples. He said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men. They will kill him, and after three days he will rise.” <sup>32</sup> But they did not understand what he meant and were afraid to ask him about it.

<sup>33</sup> They came to Capernaum. When he was in the house, he asked them, “What were you arguing about on the road?” <sup>34</sup> But they kept quiet because on the way they had argued about who was the greatest.

<sup>35</sup> Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, “Anyone who wants to be first must be the very last, and the servant of all.”

<sup>36</sup> He took a little child whom he placed among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, <sup>37</sup> “Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the one who sent me.”

TRANSFORMED

John 13

becoming the person
God intends you to be!

Premise- The transformation process begins at salvation and is a life-long process of being conformed to be like Jesus.

I. The Discussion Mark 9:30-35

- A. The disciples argue about which of them is the greatest.
- B. Jesus addresses the dispute by redefining greatness.

II. The Demonstration John 13:1-11

“Sometimes teaching is best done not by exhortation but by example, not by explaining but by modeling.” Phil Tuttle

III. The Declaration John 13:12-17

“Now that I have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet.” vs. 14

3 Transformational principles...

- 1. The transformation process requires us to think differently about success.
- 2. The transformation process requires us to be humble.
- 3. The transformation process requires us to serve others.
